1884 The President's Blend

Mendoza, Argentina / Cabernet Sauvignon, Malbec, Syrah

Hreppaflækingurinn

Like its Icelandic nickname, Hreppaflækingurinn The Wanderer, this wine is a fascinating gathering of influences from different paths & places. Much like a traveller who rarely lingers but always leaves with stories, impressions, & treasures collected along the way, this blend brings together distinct varietals that each contribute their own character to the journey.

Cabernet Sauvignon provides structure & confidence, Malbec offers warmth & depth, while Syrah adds spice & intrigue. Individually, they tell compelling stories; together, they create something far more memorable.

The Wanderer is a wine for those who appreciate discovery, a blend shaped not by staying still, but by embracing diversity & experience. Every sip reveals another layer, another encounter, another tale from the road, woven into a profile that is both complex & remarkably harmonious.

75 CL 28.100,-
